General:

Ellen's baptism is recorded in the parish of St Oswald, Chester. Until 1881 the south transept of Chester Cathedral served as the parish church of St Oswald. From 1881 St Thomas' church, Parkgate Road, which was erected in 1871, was enlarged and made the parish church of St Oswald.

Sometime after Ellen's birth and before the 1891 census, the family moved from Chester to Wrexham. By 1901 they are living at 18, Castle Gates, Shresbury and Ellen's mother is running 'Marshall's Temperance Hotel'. By 1911 Ellen was working in the hotel and, in later years, so were Carrie and Beatrice.

Charles Leonard Cowley was working as a commercial traveller for the Mazawatte Tea Company and used to stay occasionally at Marshall's Hotel. It was here that he met Ellen who he married in 1912.
